The World Today . . .

Rehabilitation

YOU'D THINK that the Big Five Council of Foreign Ministers in London would have been able to reach some sort of workable accord, what with the second World War still casting its monstrous shadow over us, and the entire eastern hemisphere, from Europe clear through Asia, facing a desperate period of hunger and politico-economic chaos.

Time is precious in these perilous days. It would be absurd, of course, to suppose that peace treaties and other far-reaching agreements can be reached in a few hours but it's a terrible mistake to underestimate the dangers of slowness in getting the war-torn countries—enemy as well as Allied—back on their feet as fast as possible. Before the coming winter is through we are going to see situations in the late war theaters where delay of even a week in distribution of food will cost many lives from starvation. Maybe that delay can be charged to tardiness in implementing peace and getting rehabilitation under way now.

This isn't to say that the present foreign ministers' conference has been directly concerned with such problems as the feeding of Europe. The main item on its agenda has been the framing of peace treaties for Bulgaria, Hungary, Romania and Finland. Still, this task has a very direct relation to the rehabilitation question. Failure to complete it retards rehabilitation.

Back in the dark days of the war, when the Allies had great problems to solve, there was a meeting of the Big Three chiefs of state. Those three men, accompanied by their experts and advisers, ironed out the mutual problems and laid plans for conduct of the war. Probably they had their differences of opinion at times, but because they were only three and were clothed with vast authority, they always reached an accord. Momentous political and military decisions were made—and were carried out. Only yesterday I heard a distinguished personage who attended these conferences speak of the faithfulness with which these agreements were kept.

Well, of course the life-or-death turn to WORLD TODAY, Page 8

WOMAN SLAYER DIES OF GUNSHOT WOUNDS

URBANA, Oct. 2.—Wesley Evisz, 67, of Piqua, O., charged with murdering Mrs. Barbara Yoast, 30, died in a hospital here this morning of a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

Coroner C. E. Thompson ruled the death a suicide and added the twice-married man had turned a 12-gauge shotgun on himself after watching Mrs. Yoast sink into nearby Kiser lake.

Sheriff Jay McKeever reported Evisz had signed a confession that he hit the divorced woman with a rock during an argument over money, dragged her body 40 feet to the lake and watched her struggle in the water.

Evisz, whose two wives had died and who lived with two of his three daughters, related he followed Mrs. Yoast to Huntsville, Ala., last week and demanded she return to Ohio with him. When they reached Piqua she demanded money. McKeever said Evisz told him, and he struck her.

BEVIN REMARK THREATENS TO HALT PARLEY

Molotov Prepares to Quit Conference After 'Hitlerian' Implication

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, Oct. 2.—Informants high within the Council of the Foreign Ministers' conference said today Soviet Foreign Commissar V. Molotov threatened to go home over the weekend after a heated argument with British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin.

The two have been reported at loggerheads frequently during the sessions which were drawing toward a close.

The representatives of the United States, Russia, Great Britain, France and China met more than two hours this morning and reconvened for another session later.

"Hitlerian" Implication

Molotov was reported by persons present at the weekend exchange to have taken exception to a remark by Bevin that the Soviet commissar's methods were "Hitlerian."

The clash resulted when Molotov demanded that the ministers revoke a decision of Sept. 11 on procedure, which permitted France and China to sit in on all discussions.

This is the issue which had deadlocked the conference for more than a week with Russia insisting the Potsdam decisions be adhered to with only the foreign ministers of the Big Three discussing and drafting peace treaties for the Balkan states.

The report was Molotov said in effect that when the group of powers reached an agreement in common and that afterwards one or more realized their mistake, the council should reconsider and repeal the decision.

To this, Bevin was understood to have said he had "never heard anything more like Hitlerian methods."

Molotov arose, walked toward the door, and said:

"Unless that remark is withdrawn, I am leaving the room and the conference."

Withdraw Remark

Bevin spoke, saying he withdrew his remarks.

Molotov returned to his chair. On the same Sunday evening of the clash, Secretary of State James F. Byrnes spoke in what was described as an attempt to smooth things.

It was reported that the ministers, toward the end of the Sunday night meeting, packed their papers in their brief cases and were prepared to end the conference then.

But the Chinese foreign minister, Wang Shih-Chieh, just before adjournment, proposed one more meeting, emphasizing that the conference could not end on such a note. The others agreed.

Decision Near On INCOME TAX CUT

Republican Substitute Proposals Rejected By House Committee

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Turning down Republican substitute proposals, the house ways and means committee moved today toward a quick showdown on the administration proposal to repeal the 3 per cent normal tax on individual incomes.

Repeal would cut 1946 individual tax burdens by $2,085,000,000 and relieve an estimated 12,000,000 low-income persons from any income taxes after this year.

The committee voted down two substitutes to the administration program offered by Rep. Knutson (R-Minn.). One, instead of outright repeal, would have reduced normal tax to two instead of three per cent. The other proposed to put the normal tax at one per cent. The normal tax is collected on all personal net income over $500 regardless of the number of taxpayers dependents.

Its repeal is the top point in the program submitted by Treasury Secretary Vinson, for a peacetime 1946 overall tax cut of $5,000,000,000, including repeal of the 95 per cent excess profits tax.

Rep. Carlson (R-Kas.) was ready with a motion that instead of repealing the normal tax would simply apply surtax exemptions to the normal levy. Under the surtax exemptions each taxpayer gets a $500 exemption for himself and each dependent.

If the Carlson proposal carries, the Republicans then are expected to offer a proposal for an "across the board" reduction of individual taxes of 10, 15 or 20 per cent.

Ravenous Appetite Lands Man In Jail

(By Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, Oct. 2.—A 34-year-old Cleveland laborer was in city jail on a petty larceny charge today, largely because of his appetite.

He was charged with the theft of roast beef, soup, salad, pie, coffee, wieners and beans—all in one sitting—from a downtown drugstore, where, police said, he dined for a week without paying his check.

His nightly habit of polishing off one meal and then ordering and eating a second full dinner intrigued the waitresses, who said his check always ran between $1.20 and $1.50.

They asked the cashier about him but she was unable to find any single meal checks totaling more than a dollar during last week. So last night the store manager and a porter watched the man eat his two full meals, pocket his check and saunter out the door. They told police.

At the police station, the man surrendered a large package. It contained a whopping lunch.

Japanese Gestapo Head In Hong Kong Arrested

British marines, armed with machine-guns, keep a watchful eye on Col. Kanazawa (folded arms) head of Japanese Gestapo, after his arrest by British authorities in Hong Kong. Kanazawa may face trial as a war criminal.

Continued Rainfall Makes September Third Wettest

The equivalent of 865 tons of water fell on each acre of ground in Columbiana county during the month of September, in which a total of 7.64 inches of rainfall was recorded—the third wettest September on record—according to Weather Observer L. H. Copeland.

The year 1945 is now 5.10 inches ahead of the average year in rainfall, a total of 34.54 inches being recorded already. March and September produced 15.22 inches of that total, Copeland reports, while July and August furnished only 6.84 inches far below what was needed in the "growing" months.

Follows Drouth

Following a severe drouth during the preceding months, rain fell in September on 26 days—an exceptionally heavy percentage. Copeland reports that the later portion of the month had above normal temperatures, bringing the grass to a spring green, the excessive moisture at the same time booming wells and cisterns.

Thirteen days last month had more than .01 inch of rain, 11 had .11 inch or more and two had 1.00 inch or more.

Normal precipitation for September is 2.87 inches. The wettest month was September, 1926, when 9.59 inches fell. The second wettest on record is 8.29 inches, recorded in 1924. The past month is the third wettest ever recorded in this section.

No killing frosts have been recorded to date. The first severe frost last year came on Sept. 24. The average severe frost date is Oct. 3.

In September, 1944, the mean temperature was 62.1, the high being 88 and the low 30. Last month the average was 65.2, with a high of 93 on Sept. 8, and a low 49 Sept. 28.

Sunshine for the month equaled 70 per cent in 1944 while this past month it reached only 55 per cent.

"Fall is definitely upon us," Copeland says, "and the country-side is beautifully colored by the turning trees." He predicts clearing weather and less rain from now on until winter sets in.

Hagert Must Die In Chair Tomorrow

COLUMBUS, Oct. 2.—Gov. Frank J. Lausche declined today to spare the life of 19-year-old Henry William Hagert of Cleveland, who is scheduled to die in the electric chair tomorrow night for killing two boys.

The State Pardon and Parole commission had recommended that the governor not intervene in the case.

Hagert was convicted of fatally shooting James and Charles Collins, 13-year-old twins, in Bay Village, a Cleveland suburb. The slaying occurred Aug. 12, 1943.

Hagert also signed a confession that he killed 15-year-old Edward Bowen at Cleveland in March, 1943. He reported too, that he beat to death another boy, named "Richard or Robert" near Lorain, but Warden Frank D. Henderson of Ohio penitentiary said he doubted the story.

Gen. Patton Loses Command After Denazification Talk

(By Associated Press)
FRANKFURT, Oct. 2.—It was officially announced today Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., who differed with Gen. Eisenhower over denazification policies in Bavaria, had been relieved of command of the famed Third army he led through France. He will take over the 15th army, which is reduced now to a "paper" organization.

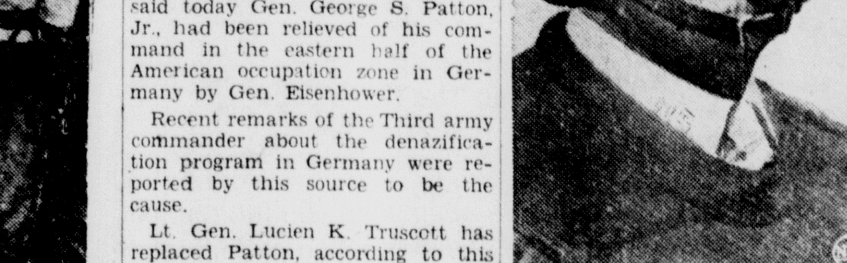

BERLIN, Oct. 2.—A reliable source said today Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., had been relieved of his command in the eastern half of the American occupation zone in Germany by Gen. Eisenhower.

Recent remarks of the Third army commander about the denazification program in Germany were reported by this source to be the cause.

Lt. Gen. Lucien K. Truscott has replaced Patton, according to this information.

(At Washington, the War department said the report of Patton's relief was "news," adding that the decision was entirely up to Eisenhower.)

Patton, who has often been in hot water for speaking out, got himself into difficulties Sept. 22 when he expounded his personal theories about denazification of his Bavarian area at his headquarters in Bad Toelz.

Gen. Patton

He told a news conference then it might be necessary to keep some Nazis in office "to insure ourselves that women, children and old men will not perish from hunger or cold this winter."

This statement brought editorial criticism in the United States, as did Patton's comparison of "this Nazi thing" to the "Democratic and Republican fight back home."

Officials Quiz Couple Today In Disappearance Of Baby

A railroad laborer and Mrs. Olive May Long, 23, of Wellsville, will be questioned today by officials concerning the disappearance of the latter's 17-month-old daughter, Edna Irene, missing since Friday.

Columbiana County Sheriff George Hayes said the two would confront each other this afternoon in Mahoning county jail at Youngstown.

The railway employee, a former Wellsville resident, was taken in custody by Pennsylvania railroad police in Mansfield after Mrs. Long told Sheriff Hayes she had been with him the night the baby disappeared.

The baby was originally reported kidnapped Friday when Mrs. Long, the wife of an overseas soldier, told police that "a dark man" had snatched the child from her arms as she walked along Main st. in Wellsville.

She later revised her story and told authorities she had given the child to the railroad worker, David Franklin Harding, 21, formerly of Wellsville.

Jr. High Teacher Resigns, Substitute Is Named By Board

The board of education last night accepted the resignation of Mrs. Frieda Pelley as a teacher in Junior High school and approved the employment of Mrs. Leonard J. Hoppes to fill the vacancy.

Mrs. Pelley resigned before the school term in order to leave Salem to join her husband, who has been employed elsewhere. Mrs. Hoppes has filled the vacancy temporarily. She formerly taught at Champion High school.

Supt. E. S. Kerr reported that needed repairs to one of the boilers in the high-school building had been made and asked for and received the approval of the board to use "New Music Horizons," a book by McConathy, in the fourth and fifth grades.

Health Trip Approved

An expenditure of $60 was approved by the board to furnish transportation to and from the Cleveland Health museum for senior class girls interested in the trip.

Two excursions will be made, one Oct. 6 and the next Oct. 13, he said. The first 40 to apply will be included in this week's trip.

The board granted Supt. Kerr permission to attend a conference in Columbus Thursday of school superintendents and heads of university education with the new state director of education, Dr. Clyde Hissong.

New contracts for William D. Dunn and Edward Miller, bus drivers, were agreed to by the board. Dunn has been contracted to make an extra trip each day to the Salem Golf club and bring a surplus of students into the city. The board agreed to pay $3 per trip on a 180-day basis for the added service.

Miller's contract was reduced to the regular driver pay, at his request, because added service he had been giving was deleted by the contract with Dunn.

The salary of Holland Cameron, Trades Extension coordinator, was set on a July 1 to July 1 basis to conform with state vocational department regulations.

15 PER CENT PAY INCREASE IS SUGGESTED

Deadlocked CIO Oil Workers Study Schwellenbach's Plan

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—CIO oil workers and 11 big oil companies—locked in controversy over wages—today studied a government peace proposal for:

1. A temporary 15 per cent pay increase, and
2. Agreement by both sides to accept an arbitrator's final settlement.

Acceptance would bring an immediate end to strikes which began Sept. 16 and spread to 12 states. Latest hit area is the west coast. Pacific military and naval supplies there were jeopardized.

Secretary of Labor Philip M. Schwellenbach presented the peace plan early today to negotiators who acknowledged a hopeless deadlock after seven days of conciliation under government supervision.

Schwellenbach had to turn his attention elsewhere, too, as John L. Lewis' soft coal miners added to government strike worries, and troubles piled up in the telephone, auto and southern textile industries.

Compromise Urged

The government, with papers already drawn for seizure continue to leave refineries idle—prodded union and management representatives to compromise on the CIO demands for 30 per cent higher wages.

Contending that "if this strike continues on into the winter, the people will be hungry and cold," Schwellenbach suggested:

1. Immediate return to work by the 36,000 striking union members and full resumption of operations by management.
2. Return to a 40-hour working schedule "as soon as manpower availability permits." With an increase of 15 per cent or its equivalent in the basic pay rate.
3. Agreement to accept the findings of an impartial arbitrator on the differences between the union's demand for 30 per cent and the companies' counter offer of 15.

The arbitrator would make his decision by Dec. 1. In the meantime, collective bargaining could be continued.

While Daniel T. Pierce, vice president of Sinclair Refining Co., said he would "go along with the secretary," other company representatives were non-committal in advance of a 4 p. m. (EST) meeting to draft a formal reply.

Report to Schwellenbach

O. A. Knight, president of the union, said the plan would be passed upon by the executive board and negotiating committee, and its position likewise would be disclosed first to Schwellenbach.

Lewis' soft coal miners gave government officials new jitters with indications of a widespread strike in the making.

Operators rejected the United Mine Workers' invitation to discuss a foreman's walkout. The producers said the men should go back to work first.

Lewis remained silent.

The foremen's strikes yesterday spread to 180 mines that normally turn out 350,000 tons of coal daily, and William Blizard, president of District 17, said West Virginia's 108,000 miners might be idle "within the next few days."

The Solid Fuels administration ordered coal shipments consigned to eastern steel mills diverted to gas utility plants.

"Gas is used for cooking and people must eat," the SFA said.

$26,000 Finding of WLB Hits Alliance Factory

CLEVELAND, Oct. 2.—The Regional War Labor board today announced findings totaling $26,000 in 55 cases involving alleged wartime violations of national wage stabilization laws. Amounts of the findings must be disregarded in computing income for federal taxes and other purposes.

The largest single finding, for $26,000, was brought against two Babcock & Wilcox Co. plants in Alliance, O., for payment of wages exceeding ceilings.

Among the others were: Canton—Canton Engraving and Electrotype Co., $2,000.

Warren—The Warren City Tank and Boiler Co., $5,000.

More Vigor Needed

After reading reports of the Foreign Ministers' Council in London, it wasn't surprising to learn that John Foster Dulles, Republican adviser to the American delegation there, has called off his projected inspection tour of eastern Europe.

Mr. Dulles was to do some looking and reporting for Secretary of State Byrnes. But the conclusions he gained from the trip apparently were intended to guide American policy in future foreign ministerial meetings. And it would seem that after the rough, tough and acrimonious sessions in London, we don't have a great many policies left.

Britain's Mr. Bevin has been insistent. Russia's Mr. Molotov has been even more insistent. According to all reports, he has discarded the kid gloves of diplomacy and pursued his demands with bare knuckles. As a consequence the other ministers have been confused, and there has been a good deal of back-pedaling.

To American eyes Mr. Molotov's demands are imperialistic, divisive and dangerous. At the same time, it is hard not to be impressed by his vigorous battle for them. Perhaps now that Mr. Byrnes has come up against his method of attack, the secretary will be better able to devise an attack of his own.

There is little reason why the United States should not put forth its postwar diplomatic program with strength and confidence. We are a strong and powerful nation. We believe that our general program is just, humane and sensible. If there must be a showdown over it with Russia, let us have it now before the rift with our wartime ally grows wider.

The Rebellious Annamites

It is a tragic misfortune that violence has broken out again in East Asia where peace was restored so recently, and that lives have been lost, including that of an American officer. But perhaps it would be wise to curb the impulse to condemn the rioting Annamites of Indo-China. For it may be that they are slightly confused by recent events.

Four years ago the Japs moved in to replace the French as overlords of Annam and the other Indo-Chinese colonies. This was done with the connivance of France which, being then a colony of Nazi Germany, had no choice in the matter.

Now France, having been rescued only recently from her degrading colonial status, has moved in to resume her former place as ruler of Indo-China.

Perhaps the Annamites had been so carried away by wartime talk of freedom and democracy and liberation that they forgot they are supposed to be an inferior people incapable of self-rule.

Perhaps they even remembered the words of two former heads of state who met in mid-ocean during the darkest days of Nazi tyranny and wrote such words as these:

"They (the heads of state) desire to see no territorial changes that do not accord with the freely expressed wishes of the peoples concerned. . . . They respect the right of all peoples to choose the form of government under which they will live; and they wish to see sovereign rights and self-government restored to those who have been forcibly deprived of them."

Perhaps the Annamites recalled that, in January of 1942, all governments then at war with the Axis had subscribed by this "common program of purposes and principles embodied in the joint declaration of the President of the United States and the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom . . . known as the Atlantic Charter."

The Annamites may have noticed that the heads of a good many civilized governments are full of repentance, loving kindness and political morality when confronted with disaster, but that they have a way of reverting to their old ways of thinking and doing once peril is past.

And the Annamites, being less sophisticated and self-deceiving than some of the world's tribes, may have decided that the only way to independence lay in strong action—even if that meant fighting a coalition of the French, the British, and the recent common enemy of all concerned, the Japanese.

Legislative Booby Trap

The misnamed jobs-for-all bill is at best a pious resolution in favor of the principle of state paternalism and at worst a legislative booby trap that will blow some future session of Congress sky-high.

Debate in the Senate revealed the shocking fact that the senators themselves did not know what some of its language meant; they were obliged to fall back on weasel-wording to obtain agreement. That is, by making the language equally obscure to both sides in the debate, each side could feel that the other side wasn't scoring a triumph. Here is an example from The Congressional Record as Senators Taft and Vandenberg tried to learn from Senator Wagner the meaning of a phrase:

Taft: "I should like to find out what 'federal investment and expenditure' is, in addition to public works."

(Mr. Wagner gave an evasive answer.)
Taft: "I seem to be unable to get a definite answer to my question."

(Mr. Wagner gave an evasive answer.)

Taft: "I have asked the question of the senator from New York three or four times, but I am unable to obtain an answer."

(Vandenberg then took over.)

Vandenberg: "Am I to understand that the phrase 'federal investment and expenditure' is confined exclusively to the construction of public works?"

Wagner: "Will the senator please repeat his question?"

(The question was repeated and amplified.)

Wagner: "'Federal investment and expenditure' probably would provide public works, but there are many different types of public expenditures, etc."

Vandenberg: "I am totally in agreement with the senator about that."

Wagner: "Very well."

Vandenberg: "But I wish to know what else 'federal investment and expenditure' would describe, other than public works."

Wagner: "It depends on what is meant by public works."

(Wagner thereupon explained that by public works he meant anything that could be said to have a public purpose and used Home Owners Loan Corp. as an illustration, saying it might be called a public work.)

Vandenberg: "That did not create any jobs."

Wagner: "Yes, it did."

Vandenberg: "Does the senator mean jobs in writing the mortgages?"

Wagner: "Well, there were jobs in connection with it. We made loans for private buildings—for instance, the renovation of apartment buildings. Those were loans made by banks, guaranteed by government. That might be called either private or public."

Vandenberg: "Then the senator does not confine his definition of 'federal investment and expenditure' to just what we mean by the general phrase 'public works construction'; does he?"

Wagner: "No, I do not."

This language quibble supposedly has been patched up by substituting other words, but heaven help the congressman of the future who tries to discover in The Congressional Record what Congress had in mind in 1945. The Wagners and their backers had one thing in mind, the Tafts and Vandenberg's something different—and sooner or later there is going to be one of the biggest collisions ever seen on the banks of the Potomac.

For Wednesday, October 3.

LIVELY and stirring events continue on wholly constructive and progressive lines, with romance, adventure, amusements and all forms of gaiety largely in the affairs and enjoyments of the young and pleasure-loving. However, finances are also under expansion and all manner of advantages, both public and private, are in order.

With enhanced prestige and popularity, much enterprise and initiative are stimulated into new channels and projects of importance.

Those whose birthday it is may prepare for a particularly lively and progressive year, with much of an eventful and happy nature. Business, finances, and important objectives receive fresh impetus, and in the home, domestic, love affairs and all forms of enjoyment and pleasure reach thrilling goals. There are likely to be spectacular celebrations with public acclaim.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

Anemia and Diet Deficiencies

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

THE relation of various foods in the diet to the development of diseases, is an important matter for study. Anemia or lack of coloring in the blood is a condition which often depends to some extent on the diet. During war and postwar periods when food shortages exist, such disturbance becomes more frequent.

Types of Anemia

There are various types of anemia. In some instances, the blood cells are larger than normal. This is called macrocytic anemia. When the blood cells are smaller than normal it is called microcytic anemia.

Doctors Geoffrey F. Taylor and P. N. Chittani of India have made a study of fifty persons with anemia. They were taken from a group of people, 17,000 of whom were meat eaters and 1,188 of whom were vegetarians. These physicians found that in a period of four and one-half months, 17 cases of anemia came from the group of 17,000 meat eaters and 26 from the smaller group of vegetarians.

Vegetarians Greater

In other words, the rate of anemia among the vegetarians was 22 times greater than among the meat eaters. Furthermore, the vegetarians had the macrocytic type of anemia, while the microcytic type occurred in the meat-eating group.

The only difference in the habits of the two groups was that the meat eaters had 20 ounces of meat a day. Hence, it was concluded that the absence of this meat in the diet was the cause of the increase in size of the red blood cells and the severity and frequency of the anemia, in the vegetarian group of those studied.

In one instance, a severe macrocytic anemia developed in a vegetarian when the amount of milk, fresh fruit and vegetables was reduced in the diet. Another case developed during a prolonged attack of fever, which would indicate the need of an abundance of meat and iron-containing foods in the diet.

Your GI Rights

WASHINGTON—Here are some questions from relatives of men in service regarding discharges:

Q. My husband writes me from France that he might not be home for two years. He is a captain in the Transportation Corps and has been overseas since early in 1945. I know that he has more than 80 points. This is contrary to everything I have read about men getting back from overseas. When can I expect him home according to the very latest War Department announcements?

A. Since your husband has written to you several regulations about bringing men back from overseas have been changed. He probably will be back before the end of the year, if not sooner, and discharged.

Q. A friend who met my son overseas just a few weeks before he came home said my boy was sitting around doing nothing and was very unhappy. If he isn't doing anything why don't they send him home? He was in the infantry. Is there a chance he might be in the occupation army?

A. The Army is getting the men back from overseas as fast as it can. If he saw action it is doubtful that he will be in the occupation forces.

Q. My brother fought in Italy with the 34th Infantry. He writes that the boys say they might not get back for 12 months or more. Is this possible?

A. According to the latest schedule, his outfit is due to get back in December. It will probably be sooner, according to the progress they are making now.

Q. A man who lives down the street from me returned from France last week. He had only been overseas a few months before the war ended and saw practically no combat. How does it happen that my son, who has been overseas almost two years, hasn't been returned yet?

A. In some cases it depends on the outfit a man served in, as to when he comes back.

THIS FALL SUIT IS WHAT YOU MAKE IT

This is the "new" suit—the suit of autumn. This is the "new" look, the broad, heavily padded, rounded shoulders that are irresistibly smart with the deep armhole, dolman-type sleeve. This is the chic way you can look, if you follow the pattern instructions carefully, and take advantage of a few budget lessons that local sewing centers offer throughout the country in sewing shortcuts and the latest dressmaker finishes. Notice the soft released darts that mark the waistline, the self-covered flat dressmaker buttons, and bound buttonholes. And most important, note the dramatic effect of combining plain crepe woolen for the jacket with matching striped woolen for the column-slim skirt. Pattern 4727 comes in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20. Size 16, jacket, 1 1/2 yds. 54-in.; skirt, 1 yd.; lining, 1 1/2 yds. 39-in. Send TWENTY cents in coins for this Anne Adams pattern to The Salem News Pattern Dept., 243 West 17th St., New York 11, N. 3 EASY WAYS FOR YOUR KITCHEN TO HELP MAKE JOBS!

★ It's easy to gear your kitchen into Uncle Sam's great peacetime production line. Help to speed reconversion, new goods, more jobs—with just three simple things. First, a home baler—it's easy to make, easy to use, and packs up all your waste paper (even little scraps) so that you can turn it in for the containers needed to package almost every product made in America.

★ Second, an old carton—which you're saving to hold every empty tin can—washed and flattened in a jiffy. Tin is one of the metals which almost every American home can turn in to help heavy industry turn out the things your household needs.

★ Finally, a fats can—where you can pour all the waste fats which you won't use over again. Turn them in for precious red points—two red points for every pound of fats—and help make soaps and cleansers more easily procurable.

★ Don't let your kitchen be a bottleneck! Make it work smoothly for you in saving waste paper, tin cans, and fats. Do it now—and every day until these shortages are ended.

OHIO 37TH'S FIRST CONTINGENT AT ATTERBURY AFTER TRIP FROM COAST

(By Associated Press)
CAMP ATTERBURY, Ind., Oct. 2 — A locomotive plarced "Ohio's 37th" rolled into Camp Atterbury early today hauling the first contingent of the 37th division to return from the Pacific.
Aboard the train were 644 veterans of combat in the Solomons, Bougainville, New Georgia and the Philippines, who expected to come out of this separation center as private citizens within 48 hours.
They are a unit of the 2,050 original veterans of the 37th who were among the 15,000 who began their training at Camp Shelby, Miss., May 26, 1941.
They fired dozens of questions at civilians. "Is shoe rationing still on? Can you get cigarettes? How about clothes, underwear? How much will I have to pay for a second-hand car? Are girls still wearing slacks?"

Signs Decorate Cars
The long train which carried the 644 from San Francisco to Atterbury bore evidence of the spirit of the men. Chalked on the coaches were signs, "40 Months In Hell And Back To Raise Hell" and "Ohio's Own 37th—Pride of the Pacific."
They had a gripe, however, and T/S Richard G. Farmer of Columbus was frank to admit it. Many in his coach supported him when he asserted:
"We didn't get the credit we deserved for our fighting. If we had we would have been home last June on points."
Farmer continued:
"We got two stars; we should have three. We got one for Luzon and one for the Solomons. We should have been given three for Luzon: the battles in Lingayen valley, Manila and northern Luzon. We should have been given two for the Solomons, Bougainville and New Georgia."

LEGIONNAIRES HEAR TALK BY OFFICER

"The American Legion post should be one of the civic centers of the community," Comdr. Ray Lawson of Pittsburgh told members of Charles H. Carey post, American Legion, when he was guest speaker at a meeting last night at the home.
Comdr. Lawson, who served in World Wars I and II, was commander of Pittsburgh City post No. 95 for two terms.
He enlisted in the Navy in 1904 and was commissioned in 1917. He returned to active duty in 1935 and will be retired Oct. 20.
In the last war he commanded a transport carrying about 4,000 men to the South Pacific and brought back 2,000 ill and wounded.
In relating some of his experiences of the last war, he said: "It was almost impossible to keep the men's courage down."
Lawson expressed the opinion that instead of attempting to make a goat of some commanding officers at Pearl Harbor the people at home should assume that responsibility themselves since the whole affair was caused by various minority groups seeking to have their own ideas fostered upon the country rather than working as a whole for the good of the nation and its protection.

700,000 Jobs In U. S. Go Begging

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 — Although more than 2,000,000 persons are unemployed, some 700,000 jobs are going begging.
Government manpower officials today advanced some theories why this should be.
The job openings are listed by the United States Employment Service, which said the answer probably lies in a combination of these circumstances:
1. Many of these laid off possess specialized skills for which there is no current demand.
2. Some, accustomed to high wartime wages, are shopping around for a good-paying job in civilian production.
3. A large number of the jobs listed do not pay well.
4. Many war workers decided to take a vacation—for some their first in three or four years.

Here's Lineup On Leetonia Powerhouse For Friday Game

Everybody and his brother will be at Reilly stadium Friday night as the year's biggest gridiron attraction here—the Salem-Leetonia clash—will be staged under the lights.

With both coaches expecting big things from their respective squads, the bags of tricks wide open and the rivalry at a breaking point once again, this year's clash looms as one of the most enlivening fans have had offered them in several years.

Despite the smaller size of the neighboring school, Salem's Quakers will enter Friday's fray definite underdogs, as Leetonia once again presents one of the state's finest Class B school teams to face the Quakers' "just average" A school offering.

Claimants of the state Class B title last year, when they won eight of nine games and tied the other, the Leetonians are seeking another unbeaten season in 1945 and Coach Charlie Mather is determined that Salem isn't going to mar the hopes.

Using a T-formation for the first time, Leetonia has piled up three straight victories this season. Wins already are posted over East Palestine, 13-6; Canfield, 43-13, and McDonald, 32-13.

Although none of these schools boast impressive teams this year, the Bears have displayed a versatile set of backs in the three games, coupled with a large, aggressive line peopled with four regulars from last year and two men who earned varsity letters in 1944.

Carrying the mail for Leetonia this season are Veterans Larry Duco, Fred Dominic and Guy Beltempo, with a newcomer to starting ball—Sammy Stumpo—in the quarterback slot.

Stumpo, though somewhat green as compared to his backfield mates, has displayed a clever passing ability speed on ball-carrying and a natural adeptness for handling the quick T-formation pass-work behind the line.

Beltempo, shifted to halfback from last year's quarter assignment, is fast, hard-driving and an able passer in his own right.

Salem and Leetonia fans will well remember the driving ability of hefty Fred Dominic, who crashed the Quaker line in 1944 with such effectiveness.

Larry Duco, a somewhat smaller edition from the Duco family, does his halfback chores with a skill rivaling that of his brother, Ed, who made things warm for Salem tackles three years in a row.

One of the largest dangers to Salem defenses Friday will be talented Pat Mancuso, 1944 All-County end, who grabs passes with glue-like ability and is a terror on defense. Mancuso has done as much scoring on the far end of Stumpo's passing this year as any of the four regular backs.

On the far end, opposite Mancuso, is co-captain Dale Klingensmith, a steady, dependable performer who stars on defense consistently. Mancuso is the tightest man on the squad, weighing in at about 135. Klingensmith tips the scales at 160, Beltempo at 155, Duco at 140, and Stumpo at 155.

Across the balance of the Leetonia forward wall an impressive lineup of weight, experience and defensive power is in fact.

James Driscoll, 195 pounds of veteran tackle material, and Robert Kornbau, a letterman of some 170 pounds, fill the two tackle spots, while Lee Todd, 145 pounds, and James Grindie, 170 pounds, are in the guard positions.

At center Coach Mather has shifted 185-pound Jack White from his last season's tackle assignment to handle the ball-tossing job in the tricky T.

Leetonia will be handicapped somewhat by the loss of such veterans as Duco and Joe Bernard, who unquestionably was one of the finest football experts ever turned out in this district.

Bernard acted as a field general for the Bears last year and was a steady and pulverizing influence in the Leetonia offense and defense. To date an equal in "know-how" has not been located among the starting eleven, but Beltempo and Klingensmith, chosen by their mates, are filling the bill.

The edge the Leetonians rate over Salem is undoubtedly laid to the experience angle. When in the pinches the Bears have the training and playing time behind them to give them that undesirable "something" which causes football players to do the right thing at the right time.

Salem so far this season hasn't shown that ability in the clutches, and clutches are certain to be the paying off points in the game here this week.

Although Leetonia rates the edge in pre-game stackups, the contest is practically assured of being a hot one—with little difference expected in score either way.

Cubs, Tigers Work Out For Series Beginner

O'NEILL SURE LEFTIES WILL RUIN THE CUBS

Hot Series Argument On Over Stevie's Hopes On South-Paws

By SID FEDER

DETROIT, Oct. 2.—The Tigers and the Cubs took their one and only pre-series look today at the baseball patch on which they start slugging tomorrow, leaving the rooters by the thousands to finish the hottest 1945 World Series argument.

How come all the Detroit optimism over what left-handed pitching can do to the Cubs?

The weather-man promised to keep the rain faucets shut down today for the two clubs. He promised, too, to cooperate tomorrow, when the first of three straight 55,000-sellout crowds cram into Briggs stadium.

The Tigers took first crack at the diamond today at 11 a. m., followed by the Chicago champions, who got in last night.

It wasn't until the Series clans started gathering last night and today that enough National leaguers infiltrated to put up a loud enough argument to be heard concerning Steve O'Neill's pleasant thoughts on how his southpaw serving is going to break the Cubs' collective backs.

"Let's get down to numbers," one veteran of the Senior circuit pointed out. "We'll admit Newhouse's a hot heater. But he's only 8 to 5 in the betting books to beat the Cubs. Then O'Neill says he's going to come in with Stubby Overmire, and he says it like he's confident about it. He must be kidding."

Admit He's Right

You had to admit this guy had something, because the records show that the Cubs this season tangled with porcupine elbows 40 times, and knocked them off in 26 games, against 14 losses. Of course, a flinger like Harry Brecheen of the Cards found out they were his cousins, but they even whipped him in the big one that counted—the first game of last week's all-important National league series with St. Louis in Chicago.

While O'Neill is making speeches about how his lefties will find big holes in the bats of such lefthanded hitters as Phil Cavarretta, Stan Hack and Bill Nicholson, the Cub lineup also sports a few fair country ball-clouters who hit from the knife side of the plate. Andy Pafko has clouted a dozen homers and knocked in 111 runs; Peanut Lowrey has sent 87 tallies home this year and Don Johnson wound up with a 302 mark.

Meantime, the Figger Filberts broke out their special adding pencils and came up with the interesting possibility that this set may produce the biggest players' share of all series history for the winners.

FOOTBALL FIRES TO BLAZE OUT IN SATURDAY'S CARD

Big Timers Meet In Three Games Which Will Make Tough Choosing

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Football fireworks will pop all over the nation on Saturday when the gridiron powers bump into each other in "weekend" numbers for the first time of the campaign.

The top contests will pit Navy against the high scoring Duke at Durham, and Notre Dame against Georgia Tech at Atlanta.

The Navy, in walloping Villanova 49-0, showed so many talented backs that visiting scouts went away shaking their heads. The Duke Blue Devils also displayed plenty of punch in rolling up 76-0 over Bogue Field's marines.

Notre Dame's Hughie Devore and Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodds both got off on the right foot as the Irish defeated Illinois 7-0 and Georgia Tech came back to nose out North Carolina 20-14.

The Army, with Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard hitting on all cylinders, rolled over the Airforce personnel Distribution Command Comets 32-0. This week the Giants will face Wake Forest's Deacons who lost 7-6 to Tennessee.

Ohio State, with Paul Sarringhaus breaking loose for four touchdowns, subdued Missouri 47-6 and will open its Big Ten competition against Iowa. The Hawkeyes edged out Bergstrom field 14-13.

Yale To Meet Tufts

Yale, 27-7 winner over Little Tufts, will try to uphold Ivy league prestige against Holy Cross which nipped Dartmouth 13-4. The latter school appears in for another whipping from the three-deep Penn Quakers who trampled Brown 50-0 and will tangle with Syracuse, beaten 7-6 by Temple.

Other big games match Kentucky at Michigan State; Indiana at Illinois; Michigan at Northwestern; Minnesota at Nebraska; Purdue at Wisconsin.

Form held for most of the other leading games Saturday with Florida's 20-13 conquest of Mississippi and Northwestern's 7-7 deadlock with Indiana the only real surprises. Colgate was impressive in its 48-0 rout of Rochester but Cornell was off its game in beating Bucknell 19-8.

In other contests Michigan panted Michigan State 40-0; Purdue edged out Great Lakes 20-6.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 2.—Harvey Teno, goalie of last year's National Hockey League champions, reported to the Cleveland Barons' training camp last night. Another arrival was Russell (Euster) Brayshaw, purchased recently from the Chicago Blackhawks.

SCHUSTER DEFEATS JUDGE TO CAPTURE SALEM GOLF TITLE

Kille and Judge Cope Now Set For Class B Title Match This Week

Rudy Schuster defeated Vincent Judge 12 and 10 in the 36 hole final for the Salem Golf Club Championship, played Sunday.

Schuster played steady golf, scoring and 80 on the first 18 and a 38 on the next nine. The match ended on the 20th hole. Judge had an 86 and a 44.

In reaching the finals Schuster beat Dr. Holzbach 2 and 1, Dick Lawrence 4 and 3 and N. C. Hunt 3 and 2. Judge won over Dick Dennis 1 up, and won his other two matches by default as Art Lind and Joe Kelley were unable to play.

Last year's winner of this event was Gene Sommers. Runner-up was N. I. Walker.

Lester Kille and Judge Milton Cope have reached the finals in the Class B Championship, and will meet in an 18 hole match sometime this week to decide the winner.

In the Class C championship 18 hole finals, Sunday, Art Hensley topped Ellwood Hammill 3 and 1. It was a nip and tuck match until the last few holes.

Al Moser won this event last year and James Britt was runner-up.

Boardman's Spartans, Three Year Winners Of Tri-County Loop Honors, Due For Fall

Unbeaten in Tri-County league play since 1941, when Louisville won the championship, Rib Allen's Boardman outfit seems destined to wind up somewhere behind first place this season.

That's a broad statement to make about a team which has won 18 loop games in three years without losing a one, but the Spartans, through a serious injury jinx, are not the top team on paper this season.

Louisville and Minerva, both with top-notch teams and two league wins already, seem to be in line for a title battle by the time things are nearly over for 1945.

Columbiana, second place winners last year, has already dropped a pair of games, to Louisville and Minerva, and because of injuries are not among the top title-hoppers this season.

With District Men In The Service

For voluntarily removing wounded men to safety during the battle for Manila, Corp. Robert V. Bielski, 25, son of Mrs. Pearl Sanders of 895 Franklin st., has been awarded the Bronze Star medal.

While Bielski's unit was attacking city hall, unusually heavy casualties necessitated the employment of all available aid men as helpers in the aid stations. To evaluate the wounded, volunteers had to be enrolled.

Bielski was one of the many who immediately stepped forward. His job was to help carry six American casualties out of the city hall courtyard. Although he knew that he would have to pass through a veritable curtain of fire to reach the wounded men, Bielski went ahead.

Under cover of friendly fire, and crawling over debris and dead bodies, all the time subjected to enemy fire, he reached the casualties. He succeeded in removing most of the men to safety.

In addition to his Bronze Star medal, Corp. Bielski has won the American Defense Service medal, the Combat Infantry badge, the Good Conduct medal, the Purple Heart for wounds suffered on Luzon, the Soldier's medal, and both the Asiatic Pacific theater and Philippine Liberation ribbons with battle stars.

Navy Speeds Vet To Wife's Bedside

struggle of the battle-fields held the Big Three together in closest cooperation. Yet many of the situations which the Big Three met at that time were no more dangerous in the long run than those which face us at this moment.

We mustn't forget that upon the next few months may depend the future of peace.

So it's good to hear talk of another meeting of the Big Three heads of state to take up the situations which are plaguing rehabilitation now. If President Truman, Generalissimo Stalin and Prime Minister Attlee could get together in the immediate future, it might make all the difference to the Allied progress in reconstruction.

Naturally there are tough questions to be answered. The major powers of Europe and Asia are maneuvering for military security. This accounts in part for the spheres of influence which are being created. Unfortunately, power politics also have entered into the picture. These things have given rise to suspicions among the Allies.

Probably the best way to tackle this highly dangerous matter of suspicions is to dump them onto a table before the Big Three chiefs. There such problems as the atomic bomb could be threshed out—and don't let anybody think that the bomb hasn't created a terrific international question. A meeting of these three statesmen would be calculated to set the peace wheels turning fast.
